

Yesterday Missouri lawmakers convened in Jefferson City to start their 2014 Legislative Session and House Speaker Tim Jones once again said it's his priority to make Missouri a so-called "Right to Work" state.

As a supporting organization of Protect MO Families, we need your help to deliver the message that "Right to Work" is wrong for Missouri. Protect MO Families has written an open letter to Speaker Jones letting him know that Missourians oppose "Right to Work" and the attacks on the middle class.

Click http://pnmo.actionkit.com/sign/rtw_2014/?source=PMFSO to add your name to the letter. We also need your help immediately to distribute this petition to as many supporters as possible. You can help us by:

- Sharing the petition link on Facebook, Twitter, other social media
- Including a link in your e-newsletter
- Emailing the link to your members
- Sharing the link with your friends, neighbors, coworkers, etc.

For email distribution, I have included an example alert email you can use for your members.

Thank you again for joining us in this fight to defeat "Right to Work" in Missouri. If you need anything from us, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Friends,

Missouri lawmakers have convened in Jefferson City to start their 2014 Legislative Session and House Speaker Tim Jones once again said it's his priority to make Missouri a so-called "Right to Work" state. We need to tell Speaker Tim Jones that so-called "Right to Work" legislation is wrong for Missouri! These proposals aren't about jobs -- they're all about politics, and undermining the basic rights of workers.

Please add your name to this open letter to Speaker Jones by signing the open letter - http://pnmo.actionkit.com/sign/rtw_2014/?source=PMFSO

Let's send a message to Speaker Jones that the legislature should be coming together to work on important issues like balancing the budget, creating jobs, and improving schools, not doing the bidding of out-of-state corporate CEO's and special interest groups who are pushing "Right to Work" in Missouri.
